

Innophos Appoints Eugenia Erlij as Vice President, Marketing

February 20, 2018

CRANBURY, N.J.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Feb. 20, 2018-- Innophos Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ:IPHS) announced today the appointment of Eugenia Erlij as Vice President, Marketing. Erlij will have responsibility for Innophos' brand and marketing strategy with a focus on elevating the Company's presence in the Food, Health, and Nutrition (FHN) markets. She will report to Sherry Duff, Chief Marketing and Technology Officer at Innophos.

With more than 24 years of industry experience, Erlij is an accomplished marketing leader with a track record of driving growth through strategic planning and execution. Erlij joins Innophos from Venn Growth Collective, a consulting firm that she co-founded to create data-driven growth strategies. Prior to that, she spent nine years at Solenis/Ashland Water Technologies, where she held roles of increasing responsibility, including Global Marketing Director and Commercial Director, Food & Beverage. Earlier in her career, Erlij was Director, Customer Marketing for L Brands and was a consultant in McKinsey & Company's Mexico City and Hong Kong offices.

Erlij will be responsible for developing a robust and agile marketing organization that is strongly backed by science and technology. In addition, she will be highly engaged in new product development and in the Company's M&A efforts.

"We are delighted to welcome Eugenia to the Innophos team," said Duff. "Eugenia brings deep insight and proven strength in developing and employing successful marketing strategies. Her extensive experience will be a critical driver in continuing to transform the organization from product-driven to market-centric. She will work closely with our technology and sales functions to implement plans that will sustain our core business while growing our presence and capabilities in attractive markets. Investing in highly-experienced professionals like Eugenia reflects our commitment to excellence as we execute on our Vision 2022 strategy."

"I am thrilled to join such a diverse and talented team," said Erlij. "As the Company evolves, we need to aggressively promote our brand and continue to leverage science and technology to create greater value for our customers. It is an exciting opportunity and I look forward to contributing to Innophos' transformation into an FHN market leader."

Erlij received her MBA, Marketing from Columbia Business School, Columbia University, and her BA, History from the University of Chicago. She also completed graduate studies at The Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies in Nanjing China.
